Thanks to Batti Manfruelli, who did us the honour of illustrating our 2023 holiday guide.

BATTI MANFRUELLI

He signs off as Batti, from the diminutive of "Santu Carlu-Batti", first names inherited in 1944 from his two grandfathers.

Fascinated by images from an early age, on Wednesdays, he waited for Mickey's journal and discovered Nicolas Carlotti's "Grossu Minutu" in the "Provençal Corse" ... the rest is part of the history of the vocation which is revealed.

From his first "cartoons" in 1975 in the island press, to press and humorous cartoons, caricatures, comic strips, illustrations, posters, advertising, sculpture. The range is broad. The method of expression flirts with derision. In Costa Verde, Batti is "u cerviunicu" for his origins and attachment to the village of Cervioni. We owe him the legendary maxim: "Sò di Cervioni eppò chi ci hè?" ... "I'm from Cervioni, so what?"

Not to be missed

CORNICHE ROAD

Departing from the village of Tagliu è Isulaccia in the direction of San Ghjulianu (or vice versa), travel along the famous Corniche road in Costa Verde and admire its breathtaking panoramic view where blue and green merge in great harmony. Along the way, discover the many villages overlooking the Tyrrhenian Sea, offering breathtaking views of the plain and the archipelago of the Italian islands. Make sure to stop along the way and stroll through authentic villages of unimagined charms, veritable treasures steeped in history, with their incredibly rich historical and cultural heritage. At the heart of this picturesque little road, cross the two tunnels dug in the rock which frame the Ucelluline waterfall, a wild, preserved site. Take a photo break in this striking setting, whilst listening to and observing the small birds that nest in the cliff. This is the origin of the "Ucelluline" moniker given to this waterfall: the "little birds".

THE UCELLULINE WATERFALL

When nature becomes a spectacle...

At once hidden and accessible, the Ucelluline waterfall makes for a striking setting that is certain to captivate you. Around a bend in the road, on the edge of the villages of Santa Maria Poghju and Santu Niculai, discover this wild, preserved site where fresh, clear water flows before your eyes, on its way to the sea, which reveals itself when glancing over your shoulder.

This stroll, while wonderful in the day, is also amazing at night, when its fully-illuminated vaporous veil will fill you with wonder.

FIUMINALE

Visit Fiuminale for a journey out of time.

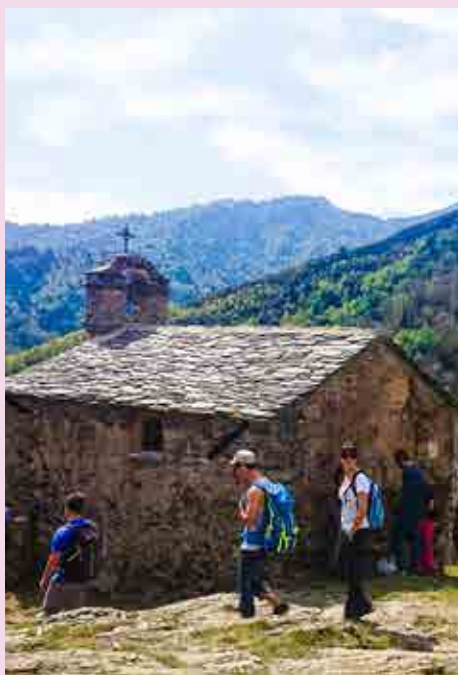

An abandoned village on the Vilone è Ornetu heights and erstwhile municipality in its own right, Fiuminale owes its rebirth to the community's dedication to nature, their region and traditions. There are still those who can be overcome with tenderness while contemplating a stone wall ravaged by time. This village, tucked away in the Costa Verde mountain, screamed its despair, the eternal refrain of those ancient communities accessible only by challenging trails, on foot, or, at best, on donkey or horseback. This village's return to life is the result of the "San Ghjiseppu di Fiuminale" association's dedication.

In Costa Verde, May 1st has become a traditional day of hiking to the abandoned village of Fiuminale, where an intergenerational gathering under the sign of the values of yesteryear takes place. The sung Mass and the "merendella" bring together a crowd of pilgrims in the very heart of the Tavanincu maquis, where the chapel and the proud houses of the abandoned hamlet have overcome the vagaries of time.

This is a glorious day in Fiuminale, an unmissable day which symbolises brotherhood.

Getting here:

Access is only possible on foot or on horseback, via the Fiuminale Suttanu trails from the Pont de l'Enfer ("Bridge of Hell") or via Fiuminale Supranu from the hamlet of Ornetu. It is best to go via the Pont de l'Enfer, the trail is more pleasant as one can combine walking and swimming in the Petrignanu River that runs along the way. The routes are marked and shaded, without any notable difficulty. In both cases, the walking time is about 1h15. Upon arrival you will be fascinated by the beauty of the site and its majestic view.

SANTA CRISTINA CHAPEL

Built in the ninth century, partly demolished around the twelfth century, then finally restored around the fifteenth century by the monks of the monastery of Monte Cristu, this chapel and its original architecture are worth a visit. While visiting Corsica, Prosper Merimée made the chapel famous in France and beyond, which is how it came to be registered in 1890 as a Historical Monument. Remarkable for its original architecture, its twin apses, and its preserved frescoes, this unique Corsican chapel will certainly impress you.

CUNVENTU SAN FRANCESCU D'ALISGIANI

Built in the 13th century, this convent has many links to the island's history.

In this place, the nation's leaders paid tribute to Theodore de Neuhoff, a German baron who was elected King of Corsica in 1736. This historical monument is a typical example of the monastic architecture of the period.

THE ANTON DUMENICU MONTI MUSEUM

The Anton Dumenicu Monti Museum of Art and Popular Traditions

The Anton Dumenicu Monti Museum is located in the heart of the village of Cervioni, close to the Cathedral of Sant'Eramu. Essentially ethnographic, this museum of art and popular traditions illustrates the population's way of life from the nineteenth to the first half of the twentieth century. The collections are presented over fourteen exhibition rooms arranged in the former seminary of the bishops of Aléria, built in 1578 by Monsignor Alexandre Sauli, who established their residence in Cervioni.

As Corsica was once an agrarian and pastoral region, most of the exhibits are related to themes such as agriculture and livestock. The daily life of the "elders" is presented through the reconstruction of a typical Corsican kitchen of yesteryear, a forge workshop, the various tools used by farriers, weavers, shoemakers and saddlers, or the replica of the printing house of the 173rd Infantry Regiment, reconstituted here with its Marinoni printing press. A room is also dedicated to religious art.

Opening Hours:

The museum is open from Monday to Saturday from 9 AM to Noon and from 2 PM to 6 PM (7 PM in the summer).

Guided tours for groups of 10 people or more may be arranged (bookings required).

Prices:

Adults: €5

Child (12 to 16 years old): €2

Children (under 12 years old): free

VILLAGE OF CERVIONI

Former capital of Corsica, now a historical village

Cervioni clings to Monte Castellu, which rises up to 1,109 metres of altitude. The town extends to the plain, thus offering both the pleasures of the beach and the mountains.

CATHEDRAL ST ERASME

Listed historical monument, the Cathedral of Sant'Eramu, once the seat of the bishopric of the diocese of Aléria in the eighteenth century, has been recently renovated, as well as its bell tower. Today, they are both beautifully adorned with an ochre colour that best matches the buildings and architecture of the village.

PADULELLA URBAN PARK

Located in the heart of the seaside resort of Moriani-Plage, the Padulella Urban Park is a true place of life and leisure which will delight both adults and children. Make the most of your holidays and treat yourself to a day among the greenery of this wooded park, where relaxing, pleasant walks can be enjoyed.

For your comfort and wellbeing, the Community of Municipalities of the Costa Verde has equipped its 9 communal beaches with garbage cans, benches and picnic tables right on the beach.

In addition, on some beaches, floor mats are installed in the summer to facilitate access to the sea for strollers and people with reduced mobility. In addition, some beaches feature beach showers for a post-swim rinse. Moreover, throughout the summer season, wooden gratings are arranged along the coast to connect the different sites, ensuring easy movement and access for all, both day and night.

OREZZA SPRINGS

In the heart of a centuries-old chestnut grove Known since Roman antiquity, the sparkling natural mineral waters of Orezza arise in the heart of the majestic Castagniccia. Authorised by ministerial decree on April 25, 1856, this thermal water, remarkable for its high iron content, was used to treat anaemia, disorders of the nervous system, malaria, and liver and kidney diseases. Now only used for drinking, the water of Orezza is part of the common heritage of all Corsicans.

An industrial site in Castagniccia, in the heart of the Corsica Regional Natural Park. The mineral waters of Orezza site presents a beautiful example of the industrial architecture of the nineteenth century, in its green, natural setting. The establishment, which has been entirely renovated, was the object in 1998 of a sympathetic extension of this historical place.

Discovering a legendary product, from the water's source to its consumption, a lot of work is required along the way. Step by step, including iron removal, control procedures and bottling, the staff here produce around 12 million bottles each year for customers' enjoyment. A virtual visit is offered in the factory outlet, which is open from the beginning of June to the end of September each year: tel +33 (0)4 95 46 32 45.

STRUCCIA WATERFALL

A magical and enchanting place...

A walking trail leads you to the river, which ends in a beautiful waterfall. The trail starts left of the church square in the village of Carchetu è Brusticu. After a few minutes, you will arrive at the "di l'Onda" fountain. 100 metres below, between the walls of a stone circus, surrounded by centuries-old trees, the Struccia waterfall, over 15 metres high, unfolds in front of your eyes.

42.36694°N,9.36767°E

PENTA DI CASINCA

Focus on Penta di Casinca, an heritage village

The village, perched 400 metres above sea level on a rocky outcrop, is a true eagle's nest which has been designated a "Picturesque Site of the Department of Corsica" for the beauty and uniqueness of its architecture. The grandiose panorama, remarkable built heritage, slate stone houses, preserved environment, and a heritage trail are the major assets of this village. The municipality extends to the seaside resort of Folelli and its sandy beach of San Pellegrino.

THE SAN PETRONE

A 360° Panorama

Towering 1,767 metres above sea level, San Petrone is the highest peak in the region's mountain system.

Its tabular-shaped summit offers a remarkable view from Cap Corse to the East coast on clear days, a breathtaking view of the mountain range harbouring the island's highest peaks, an extraordinary panorama with the sea on both sides, and a splendid view of the Tuscan archipelago and, at times, the Italian coast.

Its shale flanks are covered with forests of chestnut trees, beeches and dense, thick vegetation.

From its feet, enjoy contemplating a multitude of hamlets and authentic villages scattered in an ocean of greenery.

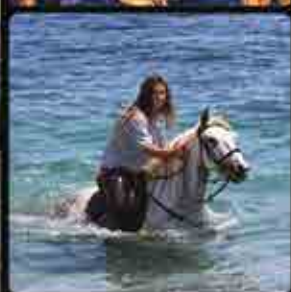

Getting There:

The ascent can be made from the eastern slope of the hamlet of Campodonico (not far from Pedicroce), from the western slope of the villages of Saliceto and Gavignano, or via the Col de Pratu (on the road to Ponte Leccia - A Porta).

In any case, the route totals 6 km with a total walking time ranging from 5h to 6h, and elevation differences ranging between 900 m (Campodonico), 1,000 m (Saliceto or Gavignano), and 800 m (from the Col de Pratu).

Once the peak is reached, admire the magnificent wrought iron cross, the walled statue of San Petru and a breathtaking panorama. An orientation table also shows the names of the villages and peaks that can be observed from this vantage.

The image is a vertical composition. At the top, there is a sunset sky with soft, purple and blue clouds. Below the sky is a white, textured fabric, possibly a bedsheet or curtain, with a ruffled edge. In the center, there is a dark silhouette of a person's head in profile, facing left. A semi-transparent green rectangular overlay is positioned over the silhouette, containing the word "Culture" in a black, serif font. The bottom of the image shows a bright, yellowish glow, suggesting a sunrise or sunset. A solid green vertical bar runs along the right edge of the image.

CONSEILS PREVENTIFS

POUR DES VACANCES SANS SOUCIS

AU SOLEIL

Profitez du soleil en toute sécurité !

Ahhhh chaleur et soleil riment souvent avec vacances... Que vous soyez au bord de la mer ou en montagne, les rayons ultraviolets sont particulièrement dangereux pour la santé.

Comment bien se protéger ?

Voici les bons réflexes à adopter :

- Eviter le créneau horaire de 12h00 à 16h00 pour se rendre à l'extérieur.
- Porter des vêtements clairs, des lunettes anti UV, un chapeau ou une casquette.
- Appliquer de la crème solaire toutes les deux heures.
- Anticiper la soif en buvant régulièrement de l'eau.

Que faire quand il est trop tard ?

- Coup de soleil, appliquer une pommade hydratante.
- Coup de chaleur ou trop forte insolation, consulter un médecin.

NUMÉROS UTILES :

Médecins de garde : 116 117

Secours depuis un portable : 112

Météo Montagne : +33 (0)8 92 68 10 20

À LA MONTAGNE

Équipement indispensable :

Un téléphone portable, GPS ou carte et boussole, 1,5 litre d'eau minimum par personne, un casse-croûte, des chaussures de randonnée, une couverture de survie, un change complet de vêtements chauds, un imperméable, une trousse de secours, une casquette, des lunettes de soleil.

Orage et foudre :

Éviter les crêtes, descendre le plus rapidement possible, éloigner de soi toute pièce métallique, ne pas rester sous un arbre ou un rocher, s'asseoir par terre en s'isolant au maximum du rocher et du sol au moyen de tout matériau (sac de couchage, rouleau de corde).

Attention :

Le camping sauvage est formellement interdit tout au long des sentiers. Les baignades en rivières et bassins ne sont pas surveillées. Les portails fermés peuvent être franchis mais doivent être refermés. Les engins à moteur sont interdits sur les sentiers. Soyez respectueux de l'environnement pour que nos enfants aient la chance de connaître eux aussi une nature encore préservée et sauvage. Ne jetez pas vos déchets dans la nature. Ne faites pas de feu de forêt. Restez sur les sentiers balisés afin de ne pas nuire à la flore locale. Ne donnez pas de nourriture aux animaux sauvages en liberté.

Retrouvez également dans cette brochure le contact de guides qualifiés et diplômés qui seront ravis de vous accompagner lors de vos randonnées.

The trail is passable from mid-April to November, and is not recommended in winter because some sections are located at more than 1,500 metres above sea level.

The trail features 12 stages of about 3 to 6 hours each.
